

2019 March, December- Stacy

Stacy is a 24-year-old Shetland pony. Her previous family had children that loved to ride Stacy; however, they simply outgrew her. Their legs grew, but Stacy's did not. They were considering what to do with Stacy, when one of their friends said "Why don't you call True Vine? They would take good care of her and she would get lots of attention." The next week, they received a newsletter from True Vine.

Stacy's owners were interested in donating her to True Vine. Our staff went to see her and after praying, decided Stacy would be a good fit. She was great with small children and would fill a need at True Vine.

In January of 2015 Stacey was donated to True Vine Equestrian Center. She is gentle with a sweet disposition, helping smaller children learn to ride. Her size helps students of all sizes gain confidence in ground training activities. Smaller children love Stacy. She helps to teach them truths from God's word such as perseverance and patience.

"And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap if we do not give up"
